Dear Parents and Friends of Queen Emma,

It is with pleasure that the governors are now able to share with you the report from our recent Ofsted Inspection.

There is a great deal to be delighted about in the report. The caring ethos of the school is recognised and commended, as is the hard work of all the staff as they seek to offer children the best possible environment for learning.

The pupils were, as always, well behaved, confident and polite in welcoming our visitors and talking about their school. We are very proud of them.

Finally the governors would particularly like to thank the senior leadership team of the school and all who worked so hard to achieve this outcome, including staff from Queen Edith School who gave their time at short notice to help in preparations. It was an example of the excellent team work typical of the Queens' Federation.

Yours sincerely
